The Birth of Agriculture

1. Summarize each of the sections of text in your own words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The end of prehistoric times</th>
<th>Agricultural tools</th>
<th>The domestication of animals</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

From harvester to producer | Specialization increases | The first cities |

2. What is meant by the term ‘Agricultural Revolution?’

__________________________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________________
3. Describe, in your own words, the process of making a loaf of bread.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

4. What was the importance of Dogs in early human societies?

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

5. Explain why pottery was an important discovery for early human societies.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

6. Explain how farming led to the development of cities.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

7. “Agriculture and the domestication of animals were equally important to the development of human civilizations”. Do you agree or disagree? Explain your views.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________